

SSCS University of Texas at Dallas Student Chapter Inaugurated in November 2019

The IEEE Solid-State Circuits Society (SSCS) University of Texas at Dallas (UTD) Student Chapter was inaugurated in November 2019. Together with the UTD, the SSCS Student Chapter presented an introduction to its capabilities and goals during a general meeting on 29 January 2020 at Hoblitzelle Hall in Richardson, Texas. During this meeting, Behnam Pouya, UTD SSCS Student Chapter chair, presented an overview of solid-state circuit applications in everyday life to more than 150 attendees. He also gave the audience an easy-to-understand Behnam Pouya, UTD SSCS Student Chapter chair, presented an overview of solid-state circuit applications in everyday life.

overview of what the SSCS is as well as its responsibilities and services. The Student Chapter officers are as follows:

- Behnam Pouya: chair

Digital Object Identifier 10.1109/MSSC.2020.2987216
Date of current version: 24 June 2020

Behnam Pouya introduces the SSCS UTD Student Chapter to an audience at Hoblitzelle Hall.

DAVE BUSH PHOTOGRAPHY

Pouya answers attendees' questions about the SSCS.

DAVE BUSH PHOTOGRAPHY

- Masoud Shahshahani: vice chair
- Farzaneh Jalalibidgoli: treasurer
- Sarfraz Shariff: director of operations
- Nicole Preisler: secretary.

However, the official inaugural event that was supposed to be held on 20 March 2020 with two guest lecturers was postponed due to COVID-19 closures. The event will be rescheduled.

