Corrections to “Crosstalk-Canceling Multimode Interconnect Using Transmitter Encoding”

HoonSeok Kim, Chanyoun Won, and Paul D. Franzon

The authors of [1] would like to note the following corrections in reference numbering. It is difficult to find correct references in the currently published paper due to the reference discords.

Most of the reference numbers were mixed up when the paper was published. Hence, these corrections are necessary.

All corrections are represented in Table I.
